What is a Taiwanese Pineapple Cake

Visitors to Taiwan are likely to enjoy pineapple cakes, one of the popular snacks in gift shops. Pineapple cakes are usually square with the pineapple filling, and they go best with tea. The pineapple filling is sometimes mixed with nuts or salted egg yolk.

Besides its good taste, in Taiwanese, pineapple has the same pronunciation as "luck arrives". Thus, if you have brought back pineapple cakes from your trip to Taiwan for friends and family, you have given them not only something delicious to eat but also your wishes for good luck. Perhaps this is one of the reasons why pineapple cakes can be the snack standing for Taiwan.

I enjoy your cheese cake very much. Its smell and taste are both great. My friend and I ate it up. Both of us think it goes well with coffee. However, the coffee is a little sweet. I asked the waiter to help me with the problem. He came to help me quickly. Good service. I think I'll invite more friends to come here with me next time.

Protect the Ocean. Don't Throw Trash in It.

Imagine traveling in the ocean and all you see is trash and seldom you see fish. Is that a world we should have? I don't think so, but if we don't stop throwing trash into the oceans, that's going to be the type of world we will live in.

One reason we need to stop polluting the oceans is it's hurting sea animals because they are mistaking garbage for food or getting caught in it and it's hard for them to escape. However, this could never have happened if there wasn't trash in the ocean.

Another reason is all the garbage is piling up in the ocean and pretty soon the whole ocean is going to be full of trash. A study shows there is tons of trash thrown away every day. Terrible, right? That's not the world we should have, so let's keep trash out of the ocean NOW!
