Ryan's Diary

Dear Diary,

Sun., May 14th, 2017

The day before yesterday was my ninth birthday. It was a warm day in spring. Uncle Kevin and Aunt Kelly came to the children's home to be with me. I don't have parents, but they are like my parents. I didn't have any robots or toy cars, so they gave me a bicycle as my birthday gift. I couldn't make a chocolate pie or fried noodles, so we had chicken sandwiches for lunch. I made them! Uncle Kevin and Aunt Kelly liked the food a lot. In the afternoon, I rode a bicycle with them. We also played dodge ball and roller-skated in the garden. In the evening, we watched TV and ate dinner together. They read many bedtime stories to me. We had a lot of fun. I really had a wonderful birthday.

Now what am I doing? I am making cards and drawing pictures for Uncle Kevin and Aunt Kelly. I want to say "Thank you" to them because they always take good care of me. They are very nice to me. I love them very much.
