Group Tours vs. Backpacking Tours

People like to spend their vacations in other countries, but before you decide where to go, ask yourself this question- which is your favorite, a group tour or a backpacking tour? A group tour means a travel agency will plan everything for your trip. On the other hand, a backpacking tour means you travel by yourself and need to plan everything on your own. Here are some differences between them.

*Group Tours

- The travel agency will do the planning for you.
- It may be safer to travel with a group.
- Your tour guide knows the place well, and you may learn a lot from him/her.

*Backpacking Tours

- You can visit the sights according to your needs. You can decide how much you want to spend on the trip.
- You need to be more careful when you travel alone.
- Planning the trip can help your time management.
